The Housing Financial Discrimination Act of 1977 Fair Lending Notice

It is illegal to discriminate in the provision of or in the availability of financial assistance because of the consideration of:

1. Trends, characteristics or conditions in the neighborhood or geographic area surrounding a housing accommodation, unless the financial institution can demonstrate in the particular case that such consideration is required to avoid an unsafe and unsound business practice; or
2. Race, color, religion, sex, marital status, national origin or ancestry.

It is illegal to consider the racial, ethnic, religious or national origin composition of a neighborhood or geographic area surrounding housing accommodation or whether or not such composition is undergoing change, or is expected to undergo change, in appraising a housing accommodation or in determining whether or not, or under what terms and conditions, to provide financial assistance.

These provisions govern financial assistance for the purpose of the purchase, construction, rehabilitation or refinancing of one to four unit family residences occupied by the owner and for the purpose of the home improvement of any one to four unit family residence.

If you have any questions about your rights, or if you wish to file a complaint, contact the management of this financial institution of:

Commitment to Rates, Fees and Terms of the Mortgage Loan

Borrower agrees and acknowledges that this application in no way commits the lender to make a mortgage loan to the borrower unless the lender specifically commits in writing. This mortgage loan is subject to several conditions which include but are not limited to, verification of the borrower's ability to qualify for the mortgage loan, the quality and value of the property, and the general credit-worthiness of the borrower which are all to be determined in the lender's sole opinion.

It is hereby further acknowledged that any oral representation by the lender or its employees to the borrower with respect to interest rates, loan fees, or terms of the mortgage loan is not a firm commitment. A firm commitment must be given to the borrower in writing. Any document which states that the interest rates, loan fees, or terms of the mortgage loan are estimates, and does not constitute a firm commitment.

Quality Control Authorization

Progressive Loan Funding is looking forward to serving your needs regarding your loan request. To comply with all government, conventional and investor regulations, we maintain a quality control system whereby, on a random basis, loans are selected for review after the mortgage is made. The system also enables us to give you the most ethical, timely and courteous service possible. In the event your loan should be selected for review, your signature below authorizes us to verify the necessary documentation. Thank you for your help and cooperation in this matter.
